SERVING AFTER THE STORMS

Everyone in the Tampa Bay Area is well aware of the two recent hurricanes that have caused so much local damage to homes, businesses, and churches. Hurricane Helene's center passed no nearer than 100 miles off the coast of Pinellas County on September 26, and Hurricane Milton made landfall about 70 miles south of Tampa on October 10. It was a difficult and exhausting two weeks for everyone and many are still struggling to recover.

Yet, in the aftermath of such devastation, I am proud to say that many of our churches rallied to support families affected by the historic storms. Mission Hill

Church (pictured above), partnered with Mississippi Disaster Relief and other organizations to serve well over 10,000 meals and provide thousands of care packages to families over a ten day period. Many other churches did similar things in their communities including Iglesia Bautista Bethel, Seaglass Church, FBC Brandon, Idlewild Baptist Church, Exciting Central Baptist Church, and others. It is wonderful to know that the Lord led and enabled so many of His people to show and share Jesus with thousands of hurting individuals and families.

Thank you for your sacrificial service. Let's keep on praying, giving, serving, and sharing.

Coming alongside,
Mike
